

Location: Grand Aston Hotel, Havana, Cuba

Target Audience: Senior executives from health plans, hospital systems, employers, service organizations and physician groups

Educational Summit Objectives:

- In-depth study of the Cuban healthcare system
- Investigate the Cuban model for universal healthcare delivery
- Appreciate the patient centered Cuban healthcare system
- Network with other healthcare executives from the United States
- Learn about life in Cuba

Day	Morning	Afternoon	Evening
Saturday, March 1	Arrivals in Miami, Florida		Registration & Welcome Reception
Sunday, March 2	Depart Miami International Airport for Jose Marti International Airport in Havana, Cuba	Lunch at the historic La Divina Pastora restaurant and visit the Fortress of San Carlos de la Cabaña	Individual Dining
Monday, March 3	Opening Remarks, Delegate Introductions, and Welcome to Cuba	Healthcare Policy &amp; Financing Cuban Ministry of Health (MINSAP) High level overview of the Cuban healthcare system, the funding priorities for primary care and public health as Cuba allocates 10% GDP to healthcare.	Patron Recognition Dinner
Tuesday, March 4	Visit to Neighborhood Consultorio (Primary Care) Learn how Primary Care providers direct access to care in the overall patient-centered care model. Follow the process for patient evaluation and escalation through the primary care channel.	Individual Research	Individual Dining
Wednesday, March 5	Visit to Municipal Hospital (Secondary Care) Review the escalation process from primary care to secondary care providers. Hospital administrators will share the prioritization model to meet the care demands with limited resources.	Visit to National Hospital (Tertiary Care) Complete the cycle of care by discussing specialized care available in Cuba. Learn about technologies, resources and post-care follow-up, and the PCP role.	Individual Dining
Thursday, March 6	Cuban Institute for Friendship with the People (ICAP) Meeting with ICAP, our official Cuban hosts where we will receive an overview of the relationship between the United States and Cuba.  National Institute of Hygiene, Epidemiology and Microbiology Science and Technique Unit of the Ministry of Public Health of Cuba  We will receive a briefing on the epidemiology of non-communicable diseases in Cuba, Services and system of health, quality of life, and environmental health.	Visit to BioCubaFarma Meet with the Cuban officials responsible for the national efforts in the biopharma sector, to produce and distribute pharmaceuticals in Cuba and internationally.  TPG-IHA Wrap-Up Session  Discuss key takeaways from our time in Cuba.	Farewell Reception
Friday, March 7	Delegate departures: Return to Miami International Airport		