

Jeff Carlisle

Vice President, Administration

Driving seamless execution behind every client experience

Jeff is the Vice President of Administration for The Pharmacy Group (TPG). TPG provides consulting services to healthcare service, information technology, and pharmaceutical companies to grow revenue and improve the financial performance of their products and services.

Over the years he has taken on additional responsibilities including marketing initiatives, client communications, and web support. Jeff is primarily responsible for managing attendee recruitment for TPG activities, including the planning and strategy of recruitment to the execution and oversight of those programs.

Jeff manages administrative operations for TPG International Health Academy (TPG-IHA). He supports registration, event coordination, on-site management, publications, website updates, basic design, and grant research and budgeting across the TPG Family of Companies.

In addition to his business career, Jeff has over 10 years of teaching experience in martial arts schools around Connecticut. As the program manager for the state's top performance martial arts school, he was responsible for student enrollments, curriculum design and class management. He had the honor of competing on the nation's #1 ranked martial arts team for three years. Most recently he was a manager in central Connecticut's premiere fitness kickboxing school where he designed classes, created social media content and marketing initiatives, and designed & implemented employee training. He also traveled the country helping other schools create kickboxing programs of their own.

Jeff attended the University of Connecticut and graduated in 2007 with a BA in English. He currently resides in North Carolina with his rescue dog Rex.
