Driving pharmacy innovation and healthcare technology strategy

James (Jim) is a Senior Consultant with The Pharmacy Group (TPG). TPG provides consulting services to healthcare service, information technology, and pharmaceutical companies to grow revenue and improve the financial performance of their products and services.

With extensive experience in the managed care industry, he has served as Director of Ancillary Clinical Services and Manager of Pharmacy Services for Univera Health Care, and Director of Managed Care Programs/Research & Development for Centrus, an Albany-based prescription benefit management company.

In 2000, Jim founded and grew CSS Health into one of the nation's three largest medication therapy management software and service providers. At CSS Health, Jim was the product visionary for MTMPath a unique medication management SaaS software platform that has been used in over 120 health plans, self-insured employer groups, PBMs and ACOs to manage drug utilization at a population level.

Throughout his career, Jim has worked with small to mid-sized venture- and privately funded health tech startups.

Jim is a graduate of Albany College of Pharmacy; he holds a master's degree in health administration from Union College and a PhD in Operations Research from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He is a licensed pharmacist in both New York and North Carolina.
